The individual under supervision has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

1                      On March 6, 2022, Paterson Police Department responded to a report of a domestic argument. Upon arrival, they met with the victim who stated her ex-boyfriend, Marckese Stewart, came to her apartment demanding money. She informed officers there had been prior domestic incidents which were undocumented. She added that while on the phone with Mr. Stewart, he said he was going to smash her car windows. The officers responded to her vehicle and observed the windows being damaged. The victim completed the probable cause form and she requested temporary restraining order. Mr. Stewart was not located and was charged with Terroristic Threats, Endangering the Welfare and Criminal Mischief and a warrant was issued.

Mr. Stewart surrendered to Paterson Police Department on March 8, 2022. He was released from custody on March 9, 2022, and the charges remain pending in New Jersey Superior Court – Passaic County.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

At this time, it is requested that no action be taken by the Court until this matter is resolved. The undersigned officer has spoken with Mr. Stewart, his employer, and the victim. His employer has given him a positive review about his work performance, while the victim has confirmed she is pregnant with Mr. Stewart's child and they would like to reconcile. She noted Mr. Stewart acts out when he is under the influence of alcohol. As a result, the probation office is referring Mr. Stewart to Oaks Integrated for a substance abuse and mental health assessment. Should Mr. Stewart engage in additional illegal behavior or violate the conditions of supervised release in another manner, the Court will be notified and a new course of action may be recommended.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
